couple. Mr. and Mrs. Winters will be at home in Palestine, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rolnick, 1509 Lenway avenue, of Dallas, entertained with a watch party New Year's Eve, complimentary to their guests, Misses Anna Levine of Houston, Texas, and Sara Rubenson of Youngstown, Ohio. Music and games were the diversions of the evening. In games prizes were awarded to Miss Rebecca Rolnick and William Black, after which refreshments were served. Arthur Abrams of London, England, rendered several extremely pleasing vocal selections, which merited applause. Harry Rolnick amused the gathering with several of his original sleight-of-hand tricks. With much hilarity and gaiety the following "Lucky Leven" attended several watch parties, looking in, to wish everyone good cheer and amidst the blowing of horns, whistles, ringing of bells watched the old year out and the new year in: Misses Anna Levin, of Houston; Sara Rubenson, Youngstown, Ohio, Rebecca Rolnick, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rolnick, Messrs. William Black, Arthur Abrams, London, Eng., Harry and Willie Susman, Louis Glick and Jake Abrams.

The Parkview Club entertained its members with a formal New Year Ball Saturday evening at the Club House. The affair was the most elaborate ever held at the Club. The ballroom was decorated in Autumn flowers artistically arranged and from the chandelier was suspended the figures 1920 and 1921 made up in flowers. The stage of the ball room where the orchestra was seated was surrounded by

If It Is the Latter It Is the Former.

We wish everybody a happy and prosperous New Year. If it is the latter it will be the former, because it's pretty hard to be prosperous and not be happy.
